IMPORTANT ACCOUNT INFORMATION

Elimination of Returned Item (Non-sufficient Funds/NSF) Fee for Consumer Accounts: Under the terms of your account agreement, when certain transactions are presented for payment in an amount that is more than your available balance, Wells Fargo may either (1) pay the item into overdraft at our discretion and assess an overdraft fee, or (2) return the item unpaid and assess a Returned item/Non-sufficient funds (NSF) fee. Effective March 7, 2022 (For Consumer Accounts Only), we will no longer charge a NSF fee on items we return unpaid due to non-sufficient funds. Overdraft fees will continue to apply to any items we pay into overdraft at our discretion, according to the terms of your account. Third parties or other banks may still charge fees for returned items.

For current versions of your Deposit Account Agreement, Fee and Information Schedule, and applicable addenda, please visit www.wellsfargo.com/online-banking/consumer-account-fees/.

Elimination of Overdraft Protection transfer/advance fee(s) for Consumer Accounts: Under the terms of your account agreement, we offer an optional Overdraft Protection service for checking accounts that allows you to link up to two eligible accounts (one savings, one credit) to authorize or pay transactions when you don't have enough money in your checking account. Transfers and advances of funds from these linked accounts may result in an Overdraft Protection transfer or advance Fee. Effective March 7, 2022 (For Consumer Accounts only), we will no longer charge transfer or advance fees for transfers/advances from accounts linked for Overdraft Protection. For advances from a linked credit card or line of credit account, interest will continue to accrue from the date of each advance. Overdraft fees will continue to apply to any items we pay into overdraft that are not covered by transfers/advances from your linked account(s).

For current versions of your Deposit Account Agreement, Fee and Information Schedule, and applicable addenda, please visit www.wellsfargo.com/online-banking/consumer-account-fees/.

Worksheet to balance your account

Follow the steps below to reconcile your statement balance with your account register balance. Be sure that your register shows any interest paid into your account and any service charges, automatic payments or ATM transactions withdrawn from your account during this statement period.

A Enter the ending balance on this statement. $ _____

B List outstanding deposits and other credits to your account that do not appear on this statement. Enter the total in the column to the right.

Description	Amount
Total	$

C Add A and B to calculate the subtotal. = $

D List outstanding checks, withdrawals, and other debits to your account that do not appear on this statement. Enter the total in the column to the right.

[illegible]

E Subtract D from C to calculate the adjusted ending balance. This amount should be the same as the current balance shown in your register.

General statement policies for Wells Fargo Bank

■ To dispute or report inaccuracies in information we have furnished to a Consumer Reporting Agency about your accounts. You have the right to dispute the accuracy of information that Wells Fargo Bank, N.A. has furnished to a consumer reporting agency by writing to us at Overdraft Collection and Recovery, P.O. Box 5058, Portland, OR 97208-5058. Please describe the specific information that is inaccurate or in dispute and the basis for the dispute along with supporting documentation. If you believe the information furnished is the result of identity theft, please provide us with an identity theft report.

■ If your account has a negative balance: Please note that an account overdraft that is not resolved 60 days from the date the account first became overdrawn will result in closure and charge off of your account. In this event, it is important that you make arrangements to redirect any automatic payments you receive. The closure will be reported to Early Warning Services. We reserve the right to close and/or charge-off your account at an earlier date, as permitted by law. The laws of some states require us to inform you that this communication is an attempt to collect a debt and that any information obtained will be used for that purpose.

■ In case of errors or questions about your electronic transfers, telephone us at the number printed on the front of this statement or write us at Wells Fargo Bank, P.O. Box 6995, Portland, OR 97228-6995 as soon as you can, if you think your statement or receipt is wrong or if you need more information about a transfer on the statement or receipt. We must hear from you no later than 60 days after we sent you the FIRST statement on which the error or problem appeared.

1. Tell us your name and account number (if any).
2. Describe the error or the transfer you are unsure about, and explain as clearly as you can why you believe it is an error or why you need more information.
3. Tell us the dollar amount of the suspected error.

We will investigate your complaint and will correct any error promptly. If we take more than 10 business days to do this, we will credit your account for the amount you think is in error, so that you will have the use of the money during the time it takes us to complete our investigation.
